SOME STAY FOR A WHILE AND LEAVE FOOTPRINTS ON OUR HEARTS.
AND WE ARE NEVER, EVER THE SAME.»

TO EMILIANO PEREZAGUA AND HIS FAMILY
(COLLECTION OF WORDS IN SORROW AND GRIEF BY ETIP PV MEMBERS)

“Emiliano was loved. He made a difference in the PV world. He made a difference to us. We will miss him and cherish our time with him.”

Prof. Marko Topič
Chairman of ETIP PV
University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

“I would like to remember Emiliano for his big passion on solar and his Big humanity always available to share know how and talk about It.

Ciao Emiliano a Pray for You and your family.”

Fabrizio Bizzarri
Head of Solar, Wind and Geothermal Innovation at ENEL GREEN POWER, Italy

TO EMILIANO PEREZAGUA AND HIS FAMILY

“This comes as a shock! I have worked closely with Emiliano since the very start of PV TRAC, the predecessor of the PVTP and the ETIP PV. He was a very warm personality with great integrity and true interest in other people. He was a PV pioneer and expert, a family man, and much more. It is very difficult to imagine the European PV world without him. We feel very sad to have to continue our work without him and wish Mrs. Perezagua, his family and his friends our sincere condolences.»

Prof. Wim Sinke
Vice-chairman of ETIP PV
Director of TKI Solar | Manager Program Development at ECN Solar Energy |
University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

“Emiliano deserves a nice homage for his incredible involvement in the development of PV but also his role in our platform.”

Gaëtan Masson
Vice-chairman of ETIP PV
Director of Becquerel Institute, Belgium

“What a sad news and a great miss..... he was a very kind person and great PV expert.”

Silke Krawietz
Founder and CEO of SETA Network, UK
University LUISS Guido Carli, Italy

“... difficult to believe, difficult to accept...”

He was so deeply involved in our PV community, we will miss him.”

Philippe Malbranche
Director of CEA INES, France

TO EMILIANO PEREZAGUA AND HIS FAMILY

“This came as a real shock to me. I find it hard to come to terms with this all too premature loss.”

Dr. Pierre-Jean Alet
Project manager at CSEM, Switzerland

“It is really sad and a great miss ...”

Dr. Venizelos Efthymiou
Chairman of FOSS Research Centre for Sustainable Energy, Cyprus

“It is a very sad news, indeed. I got to know Emiliano within the Platform, and we worked together in the context of the former SEII. Everybody will miss him, as Marko said. I join Marko and all ETIP PV members in the message of condolences to the widow.”

Dr. Fabio Belloni
Policy Officer, Directorate-General for Research & Innovation, European Commission

“Dear all, I am still shock by the sad news, finding even difficult to react properly... I am happy to hear that you could attend the funeral, which I could not.

For those of you who understand Spanish, you may like to watch a recent report they made in Spanish television about the «Solar Revolution» (around 30 min), in which Emiliano is one of the main characters:
